

TABOR TALK

What To Do After Easter?

By Michael Brown

"Post" any big liturgical day seems anticlimactic. The day after Pentecost, the birth of institutional Christianity does not seem to be a topic on anyone's mind. The day after Trinity Sunday, few people want to discuss the meaning of one God understood in three distinct ways. The day after Christmas has lost almost all touch with theology and has become, instead, a time simply for returning gifts that were too small or too large or neither needed nor desired to begin with. And then, there's the day after Easter.

What do we do with the day after Easter? Or the week after? Or the whole fifty day season till Pentecost, for that matter? Or, to broaden the scope even more, the whole of life as a person of faith? What do we do with Easter?

As Christians, this is the occasion that gave birth to all the others. There would be no Pentecost nor Trinity Sunday nor Christmas without what happened one morning long ago at a borrowed tomb. "He is not here, for He is risen," gave birth to all the rest. In truth, all that we do as Christians exists beneath the umbrella of what's called "Resurrection theology."

We worship the One who rose in victory. We serve the One who calls us to take up our crosses and follow, to love our neighbors as ourselves, knowing that the cross has no ultimate power over Love. We find comfort from the One who said, "Come unto me, all ye who labor and are heavy laden." We survive grief because of a promise made by the One who defeated death, "And I, if I be lifted up, shall draw all others unto myself." We find power from the One who walks beside us day by day, moment by moment, step by step, assuring us, "I will be with you always." None of those promises would have outlived him had it not been for Easter. They would simply have been momentarily helpful words spoken by a maverick Rabbi who was crucified as an enemy of the state. But, because of Easter everything changed. Every word, every promise, every assurance is held sacred (as the old hymn puts it) "Because He lives." Our Faith exists because of the Resurrection.

So, who are we essentially? Author Barbara Johnson was the first to pen the expression, "We are Easter people living in a Good Friday world." It appeared in her book Splashes of Joy in the Cesspools of Life. She experienced heartache with each of her three sons, her husband endured a long and difficult recovery from a near-fatal accident, and she fought cancer for six years (before succumbing to it in 2007). She knew about the cesspools, the pain, the fear, the tragedy of human existence. She knew about cross-bearing. But, she persevered and found victory through humor and, more especially, through faith. It was her belief in One who overcame death that gave her the strength to endure (and even celebrate) life. His victory caused her to believe that she, too, would be victorious.

"Easter people in a Good Friday world." We are people who experience suffering but trust in His comforting presence, who witness unfairness and oppression but respond with a commitment to justice for all because He died and rose for all, who understand what loneliness feels like but overcome it by surrendering into His loving arms or by becoming His arms of love for others who are alone. We even discover joy in the midst of stress or anxiety (remember, in the Orthodox tradition the word "Easter" means "God's laughter"). There really is no such thing as "post"-Easter. For us, it's always Easter. Every day. Everywhere. With everyone who needs to know what we know: "He is risen. He is risen, indeed. Hallelujah!" So, though the day is behind us, its power is around us, beneath us, before us, and within us. Who we are and what we do depends on that. Therefore, dear friends: Happy Easter!

What we're talking about this month in TaborKIDS Junior:

Have you ever been somewhere where it was so dark you couldn't even see your hand in front of your face? No light shining under the door. No stars in the sky. No screen glaring back at you. Just darkness. So much darkness that you have to shuffle slowly, stumbling your way across the room with arms stretched out, hoping, searching . . . and then finally, with the flip of a switch, LIGHT! Light changes everything.

This month, we're talking about light, but not just any light. We're talking about Jesus—the light of the WORLD—and how when we do what Jesus says, we shine. We shine the light of Jesus! After this month, we hope every time you and your preschoolers see a lamp or a star-filled sky, you remember that people were made to shine, and we have Jesus—the light of the world—to show us how. So, let's not hide our light. Let's SHINE and light up the dark so others can see their way to Jesus.

What we're talking about this month in TaborKIDS:

Waiting is a part of life. Thankfully, we don't have to wait on our own. Through the Holy Spirit, God can help us experience the patience we need to wait well. After all, God is patient with us. God is in control and knows what's best for us. Even though God's people had been waiting for years for the promised Savior, at just the right time, God sent Jesus. Because we're created in God's image, we can reflect God's patience in our lives. We can be patient when we remember what God has done. We can lean on God's Holy Spirit to give us the strength we need to trust God and show patience with the difficult circumstances in our lives.

Eastertide

We have just spoken the words, "Christ is risen. He is risen indeed!" Now we have the opportunity to live those words. The wilderness time of Lent is past but our journey does not end here. Our spiritual journey continues as we enter into the Season of Easter or Eastertide. Eastertide refers to the 50 days from Easter Sunday to the Day of Pentecost which is May 19th this year. As we walk the path from Resurrection to Pentecost we can look for encounters with our risen Lord. We can ask ourselves: Where do I see Jesus in my day to day life? How is He working and moving? Where do I see a glimpse of His goodness in those who reflect His love? As we continue this journey, who do we identify with in the stories told in scripture? Are we like Mary Magdalene who hearing Jesus call her name, recognized him as the Lord? Maybe we are sometimes like the disciple, Thomas, who doubted and wouldn't believe until he had proof that Jesus was alive. Or like Peter who needed forgiveness and was given it. Jesus shows us abundant grace so that we can live our lives fully. And to live our lives fully we must continue the process of spiritual formation – the process of being open to the work of the Holy Spirit to shape our life into the likeness of Jesus.

Opportunities for Spiritual Formation:

- Sunday School Classes and Small Groups for Adults – please let me know if I can help you get connected.
- Nourishment for the Soul: Lunch and Learn with Pastor Michael. Everyone is invited to come and enjoy a light lunch made by Sheri Nebinger and teaching from Pastor Michael as we nourish our body and soul and learn more about who Jesus is. Donations will be accepted to cover the cost of lunch.
Come to any or all of the gatherings from 12:00 – 1:00 pm on the following Thursdays in the Fellowship Hall:
 - April 11: An overview of the Gospel of Mark & the Nativity story from the gospels.
 - April 25: The Gospel of Matthew
 - May 9: The Gospel of Luke
 - May 23: The Gospel of John
- Wednesday Women's Bible Study – "Encounters with the Risen Lord"
All women are invited to attend the Bible Study, "Encounters with the Risen Lord" on Wednesdays at 9:30 am in person in the Fellowship Hall and also via zoom from April 10 - April 24. We will look at encounters various people had with Jesus following his resurrection and concluding with his ascension into heaven. There is nothing to purchase to participate. Come and bring a friend.

Youth Ministries at Mount Tabor UMC

March gave us that first taste of beautiful spring weather, and provided a wealth of memories. The month started with us having the chance to take a moment and "Breathe," while embarking on our Spring Retreat together.

We finished up our Saint and Martyr series during youth and are about to experience Holy Week together including a Good Friday activity of carrying a cross with other local youth groups.

As we embarked on this journey together, we were able to see the raw pain, and difficulties that may arise by choosing to follow the King of Kings, the Prince of Peace, our Savior Jesus Christ. However, despite knowing the struggles, we also bask in joy knowing that Jesus overcame death. Jesus showed that death no longer gets the last laugh, and that through him we can be made and continue to be made different.

What a beautiful thing it is to be reminded of the fact that Jesus overcame death just as we celebrate our Ryan Shoaf Memorial Grant winners, and plan for our Andy Burton Memorial Golf Tournament on May 18. We remain grounded in knowing that despite their physical presence not being here — Jesus said "life gets the last word"— their lives continue to live through us, our trips, through our service in the community, and through being in community.

So let us experience this last week of March together in prayer, in community, and even possibly in sorrow remembering that we must muster the strength to visit the tomb and realize that it is empty. Let our tears of sadness be moved to tears of joy, let us lay those difficult tasks at the foot of the cross, and let us take a moment to "Breathe" and rejoice that He is Risen!

Join us for an Upcoming UMC Briefing with Kim Ingram

Please make plans to join us on Sunday, April 14, 2024 at 10:00am in the Alspaugh Worship Center as we welcome Kim Ingram, Director of Ministerial Services and Conference Secretary. Kim will provide an up to date briefing on the upcoming UMC conference on April 23-May 3 in Charlotte. Kim began her role as Conference Secretary in 2008. Among her duties is to work with the Bishop and other WNC Conference Leaders on conducting annual conference sessions. We are looking forward to having her insight and expertise at MT. Tabor.

Information about the conference can be found on their website <https://www.ctcumc.org/newsdetail/general-conference-2024-to-convene-april-23-may-3-in-charlotte-nc-17115700>

Additionally here is an excerpt from an article titled "Looking ahead to General Conference next year" published on UMnews.org that provides a high level overview of topics for the conference. The lawmaking assembly faces many proposals dealing with topics as varied as the denomination-wide budget, social teachings, ecumenical relations and international structure. All told, General Conference has received 1,100 properly submitted petitions — basically the United Methodist equivalent of bills before a legislature. And just like a bill on Capitol Hill, the first stop for a General Conference petition is in one of the gathering's legislative committees. In 2024, General Conference will have 14 legislative committees.
